

BYLAWS
SPOKANE RIFLE CLUB INC.
As amended December 11, 2011

ARTICLE I - PARLIAMENTARY AUTHORITY

The rules contained in Robert's Rules of Order, latest revised edition, shall govern this club in all cases in which they are applicable, and in which they are not inconsistent with these Bylaws, Articles of Incorporation, or any other adopted rules of the SRC.

ARTICLE II- MEMBERSHIP AND DUES

Section 1. Any reputable citizen of the United States, 18 years of age or older may apply for membership to the Spokane Rifle Club, Inc. (herein called SRC).

Section 2. The fee for membership (herein called dues) shall accompany the application. The Board of Trustees (herein called the Board) shall have authority to accept or reject any applications. When an applicant is accepted, a membership card signed by the President and Treasurer shall be issued. A copy of these Bylaws shall be made available to the applicant. If an application is rejected, the fee shall be returned to the applicant. An applicant may use the the SRC facilities from the time of payment of dues until either accepted or rejected for membership, but the applicant may not vote or hold office until such application is approved.

Section 3. There shall be three categories of membership: Annual, Life and Junior Members.

A. Annual members pay dues yearly. A membership card will be issued for the year dues are paid. The SRC has three types of annual members.

1. Adult Members - Pays dues annually. The amount shall be set by the vote of the general membership.
2. Twenty - year Members – Pay ½ the amount of the annual dues. Members who reach twenty consecutive years of full annual membership shall qualify until the age of 66. A twenty – year member who is 66 years of age becomes eligible for life membership.
3. (Over 65) Members over 65 years of age as of 1 January and who have five previous consecutive years of annual membership are eligible for ½ price annual dues.
4. The period of full annual membership is January 1 through December 31 as defined under section 5: the calender year is divided into quarters.
 - a. A new applicant will pay dues dependent upon the quarter of the year they make the application. The new applicant's membership will be valid until the end of the calender year when they become subject to full year's dues for the following year.
 - b. Applicant initiation dues are subject to full payment regardless of what quarter application is made. It is further defined that the above ruling shall apply to new applicant only.

- c. Current annual members must pay full year dues, and have the privilege of paying at any time during the current year. After this grace period has expired, members have lost this annual membership privilege and will be considered as a new applicant and must pay dues and initiation fees as outlined in this paragraph.
 - d. New members must complete at least 12 months membership before he or she will be eligible for nomination for club officer position.
5. Any previous member who has had a job transfer out of the area, such as Armed Forces or corporate move, and reapplies as a new member, may request in writing the matter of his or her initiation fee reviewed by the Board for possible variance.
 6. Dependents of current members and current individual junior members may apply for an adult annual membership through their 19th birthday without being subject to initiation fee.
- B. Life memberships are free from annual dues and can be achieved by one of the following methods
1. Awarded for some specific act or contribution by 2/3's vote of the Board.
 2. Upon completion of 20 consecutive years of annual membership and attainment of age 66 years of age as of the January 1 current members shall be awarded life membership.
- C. Junior Membership shall be known as “Spokane Junior Rifle Club”. Junior members may use the club facilities under the immediate supervision of an Advisor appointed by the Board. Certain junior members may be identified as eligible for unescorted use of SRC facilities. Such requirements shall be listed in the Standing Rules. Junior members can not vote at annual or special meetings.
1. Junior member's age shall be consistent with current NRA rules for those activities in which the club schedules and participates in NRA sanctioned events.
 2. Junior member's dues shall be set by the Board.
 3. Members of this department may elect officers needed to conduct business pertaining to the junior club, submitting the names to the SRC Secretary.
- D. Family Members: All adult memberships are family memberships. The member's spouse or life partner and dependent children through age 18, natural or adopted and grandchildren through age 18 years of age are entitled to use SRC facilities without payment of non-member fee. All family members under the age of 18 shall be supervised by an adult family member at all times. The member shall be no farther than the closest adjacent firing point from the said children. Family members over 18 years of age, other than spouses must purchase separate memberships. Only the sponsoring member may vote or hold office, however, nothing in this section shall prevent any adult eligible for membership from applying for and being granted active membership.

Section 4. Dues shall be paid to the SRC Treasurer or Board Designee, who shall immediately issue a receipt for same.

Section 5. The period of annual membership is January 1 through December 31. Unpaid members shall be dropped from the rolls and denied use of the facilities.
